Thu., May 2, 7 p.m.
Treaty Site History Center, Free, no registration required.
58 min. Not Rated. This is the story of two towns linked by immigration, family, and work: Jacaltenango, a highland Maya town in Guatemala and Jupiter, a coastal resort in Florida. This film chronicles some of the reasons why people migrate and how those people maintain close family relationships despite their distance.

Garbo the Spy
Thu., Jun. 6, 7 p.m.
Treaty Site History Center, Free, no registration required.
88 min. Not Rated. The best documentary on World War II espionage to be released in cinemas in more than a decade. Centering on the activities of arguably the single most important spy of WWII, Juan Pujol Garcia. "He tricked Hitler so thoroughly that the Germans thanked him after the war—with no idea he'd helped defeat them," commented historian and author, Andrew Roberts. However, this compelling film does not end with the Allies' victory in 1945, but rather morphs into a new story of faked death, stolen riches, and bigamy.
